Tickets to the 2015 Prudential U.S. Figure Skating Championships Available at Hanes Mall for the Holidays

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (NOVEMBER 26, 2014) – Tickets to the 2015 Prudential U.S. Figure Skating Championships are now available at Hanes Mall in Winston-Salem. Tickets are being sold at a new retail location in Hanes Mall called “Winston-Salem Dash Sports Gifts” and are being made available through a marketing collaboration between the Dash and the 2015 Prudential U.S. Figure Skating Championships, which will take place January 17 through January 25 at the Greensboro Coliseum Complex.

“Winston-Salem Dash Sports Gifts” will maintain the same hours as Hanes Mall: 10 a.m. until 9 p.m. Monday-Saturday and noon until 6 p.m. Sunday. The store is located on the first floor next to Sears and will remain open until December 31.

In addition to the 2015 Prudential U.S. Figure Skating Championship tickets, shoppers will be able to purchase Dash hats, shirts, memorabilia and much more. In addition, fans can buy Dash tickets or ticket gift certificates at the new store.

The largest Winter Sport National Championships in America, the 2015 Prudential U.S. Figure Skating Championships will crown 20 National Champions and will feature America’s Olympians from the Sochi Winter Games that took place earlier this year. Approximately 375 skaters will be selected to compete in the U.S. Championships in Greensboro. National Champions will be crowned in Ladies, Men, Pairs, and Ice Dance at the Senior, Junior, Novice, Intermediate and Juvenile levels.

Competitive events will take place over a span of nine days next month with multiple sessions each day. The Championships will conclude with the much-anticipated Smuckers’ Skating Spectacular, an exhibition of champions from events throughout the week. As it did in 2011, Greensboro will once again stage the three major event components – Competition, Practice and FanFest – all under one roof.
