2015 U.S. Figure Skating Championships All-Event Ticket Packages Available to Public Friday

Most Spectator Enhancements at Host Venue Already Complete

February 28, 2013— At midnight EST Friday, March 1, all-event ticket packages to the 2015 U.S. Figure Skating Championships in Greensboro, N.C., go on sale to the general public. This is the first opportunity for the public to purchase tickets to the 2015 U.S. Championships.

"The 2011 AT&T U.S. Figure Skating Championships also held in Greensboro were a huge success," said Hill Carrow, Chairman of the Local Organizing Committee for both the 2011 and 2015 events. "Over 160,000 attended the event and attached FanFest in 2011 setting the all-time attendance record for an event at the Greensboro Coliseum Complex. Thanks to the universally positive reviews for that event, fans are already clamoring for tickets to the 2015 U.S. Championships. The best way to ensure the best seats is to get your order in early."

All-event packages provide the ticket holder with admission to every competitive event of the 2015 U.S. Championships, currently projected to include 20 ticketed sessions. The ticket holder gets the same seat for every event. A ticket to the Skating Spectacular can be ordered at the same time and the purchaser will be able to retain their same seat for the Skating Spectacular.

"With over $24 million in improvements underway at the Greensboro Coliseum Complex, host venue for the 2015 U.S. Figure Skating Championships, the fan experience at the next U.S. Championships in Greensboro will be second to none," said Faryn Roy, Director of Operations for the 2015 U.S. Championships. "When you consider improvements such as cushioned seating, widened concourses, new concession stands, new VIP hospitality spaces, and the amazing new arena videoboard, you have an amazing facility transformation that will enhance the athlete and spectator experience throughout the event."
